

Primary Elections (a) Eligible Voters Only registered Republicans, registered Independents, and those who state no preference of party affiliation shall be allowed to vote in the Republican Primary Election for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, US Senator, US Representative, and members of the State Legislature.

(b) Republican Designation No person may use the word Republican on any ballot or in any campaign as part of a description of himself as a candidate unless that person is an ARP candidate, selected according to ARP Rules.

(c) Maximize Voter Participation in Primary Elections

(1) Any voter qualified to vote in the Republican Party primary may vote in that election, regardless of whether or not that voter has voted in the primary election of any other party.

(2) The fact that a voter has voted in the Republican Party primary election shall not disqualify that voter from voting in the primary election of any other political party or parties, where that voter's participation in the primary election of other parties is authorized or permitted by the rules of the other party or parties, or the statutes of the United States or the State of Alaska.

(d) Modification to Primary System The SCC, or the SEC in the event that there is insufficient time to convene the SCC, may adopt any and all additional rules, regulations, interpretations, clarifications, and the like, which are necessary or desirable to implement the Republican primary election in accord with other rules adopted at this Special Convention, and pursuant to Art XIII. Any action taken by the Central or Executive Committee under the provisions of this rule shall have the same force and effect as if adopted by this convention.
